

Call for Papers

Publication opportunities in Special Edition of IIBF's Journal, Bank Quest

The Indian Institute of Banking & Finance (IIBF) has been in the forefront for disseminating knowledge relating to the banking & finance domains since its inception in 1928. The Institute is publishing its quarterly journal, 'Bank Quest' containing articles on contemporary topics in Banking & Finance since 1930. The primary objective of the journal is to provide and update knowledge of banking & finance professionals about the contemporary topics concerning BFSI sector. It is also listed in India's UGC CARE list.

The 'Bank Quest' is a theme based quarterly journal known for quality of articles published. As part of the conference, we intend to bring out a Special edition of Bank Quest.

The theme of the APABI conference is "Paradigm Shift in Banking: Advancing Towards a Resilient, Inclusive and Sustainable Model".

For the Special Edition of Bank Quest, we invite the articles/papers on following themes:

- Emerging opportunities for savings and investments
- Empowering through knowledge – Preparing future ready banking professionals
- Digital Transformation: Redefining the Banking Landscape
- Climate Risk & Sustainable Finance – Challenges & Opportunities
- Data Driven Banking: Leveraging Big Data and Artificial Intelligence
